

1404 E. Yesler Way, Suite 203
Seattle, WA 98122
(206)686-7252
Fax (206)903-0675
www.seattlecommlaw.org

POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT
SCLC MOBILE ATTORNEY
10/16/2018

We are looking for an attorney with 0-6 years of experience to serve the community as a Staff Attorney.

SCLC is a compassionate legal services organization, committed to delivering: high-quality trauma informed advocacy centered on client needs; honor for the humanity of every client; and a continually inclusive and collaborative environment for all. We make direct legal representation in Social Security matters accessible at the convenience of low-income community members in King County. We offer legal advocacy that accommodates disabilities and other barriers that low-income people may face. SCLC builds workable advocacy plans for clients that face poverty, language barriers, homelessness, limited transportation, and mental illness.

We are hiring a staff attorney so that we may better serve the needs of community members in King County.

RESPONSIBILITIES

The staff attorney will provide high-quality Social Security advocacy to low-income people in King County. The staff attorney will be responsible for independently managing an active caseload, maintaining active relationships with community partner outreach locations, and mentoring volunteers.

The staff attorney will establish 3-5 relationships with community partner locations throughout King County. The staff attorney will deliver legal services to clients from these locations where our clients are already engaged with providers of other types of human services. Building and maintaining these community partner relationships includes: coordinating community connections, conducting trainings, conducting ongoing outreach, delivering legal aid onsite, and continually building a network of support for SCLC clients in their communities.

Travel and occasional work in the evenings and on weekends will be necessary. The successful candidate will be a person who is enthusiastic about traveling from site-to-site for the purpose of meeting clients where they are. It will be necessary to have clear capacity to make quick transitions from travel to casework.

QUALIFICATIONS REQUIRED

- 0-6 years of experience practicing law

- Demonstrated capacity to effectively develop case theories
- Ability to juggle multiple ongoing projects effectively
- Exercise good judgement under stressful situations
- Demonstrated ability to manage a large caseload
- Washington State Driver's License
- Experience working with homeless and other underserved communities and people
- Member of the Washington State Bar
- Experience training or teaching groups of 3+ adults
- Clear capacity to make quick transitions from travel to casework

The applicant must have a commitment to inclusion and equity and carry personal values of respect for differences of race, ethnicity, age, gender, sexual orientation, gender identity, religion, ability, and socio-economic circumstance.

QUALIFICATIONS PREFERRED

Bilingual applicants are highly encouraged to apply. Languages that are critical to the clients we serve include but are not limited to: Spanish, ASL, Russian, Somali, Mandarin, and Vietnamese.

COMPENSATION AND BENEFITS

Salary is $45,000-$58,000 DOE. Benefits include paid holidays, paid vacation and sick time, a retirement plan, medical benefits, and family leave.

APPLICATION PROCEDURE

To apply, email a letter of interest, a resume, and a short writing sample (3-5 pages) to Alex Doolittle at alex@seattlecommlaw.org with the subject line "Staff Attorney Application." Please apply at your earliest convenience, applications will be accepted until November 15, 2018.

SCLC is an equal opportunity employer. We value a diverse workforce and an inclusive culture.