

While we can stay home and be safe, over half of our clients do not have a home that provides the same sort of sanctuary.

Instead of a home to go to, many of our clients will stay in a shelter, an encampment, or an area where it is impossible to avoid large groups of people.

Over 50%

of our clients are currently experiencing homelessness.

