

Preliminary research has shown that individuals over the age of 60 are at the highest risk of being affected by COVID-19.

For many of our clients, maintaining and gaining access to health care through Social Security benefits is incredibly important to their overall health.

Over 1/3rd

of our clients
are seniors.

